September Meeting
Monday 23rd
Balmoral Bowls Club,
Jean Howie Drive,
Morningside
at 7.45 pm

We will be having a Pipers' Night, so please all come along with your pipes and your tunes.

From the Editor:

As you will see from the details inside, the Annual Meeting ahs come and gone with some suggestions to be taken up by the committee. If you are due to pay subscriptions, there is an invoice enclosed with this newsletter

This newsletter includes results from both the Argyllshire Gathering and the Northern Meeting in Inverness, the climax of the solo contest season in Scotland. It also has the Cowal Gathering results and the Champion of Champion Band results.

As you will also see, we are going to conduct a St Andrew's Day Ceilidh at the Balmoral Bowls Club on Saturday 30 November. This is at the conclusion of a day at the club with a Scottish theme (so we hope lots of the bowlers will come) and also gives us the chance to have an end of year social event.

AUGUST 2002 MEETING

About 28 people turned out on a cold and windy night for the Annual Meeting and Pipers Night. The Annual Meeting is covered elsewhere in this newsletter in the reports and minutes, so I'll start at about 8.20 pm when the piping began.

John McDonald from Kingaroy was the first piper. Showing good steady blowing on a medium pipe along with good technique which got just a little bit rocky in some of the later tunes. His tunes included Garb of Old Gaul, Music of the Spey, Cockney Jocks, Doctor Ross, Jean Mauchline, Crossing the Minch and Train Journey North.

Staying with youth, the next player was Ryan Hofmann on a biggish sounding pipe. He showed good form on some big tunes. Later in his selection he tried some really spectacular tunes, as you'll see by the list. Although not all of it was completely mastered, he showed he is developing quickly as one of our leading young players. His tunes included The Edinburgh City Police Pipe Band, Caber Feidh, Alick C MacGregor, Flora MacLennan's Favourite, Cockerel in the Creel, Jimmy Blue, Geese in the Bog, Trisha's Air, Mason's Apron, Calliope House and Rory Gallagher's.

Next to entertain us was Vaughan Parker. Again he had a big sounding pipe which was steadily blown but with a few wobbles as he went on. There was a good mixture of more traditional and more modern tunes in La boem, Donald MacLellan of Rothesay, Loch of the Birds, Video Man, Cion A'Bhuntata and Donald Cameron's Powderhorn.

Still keeping with the youth, Michelle Hodder was the next piper. She had a slightly lighter pipe which was just a touch out of tune to start with. She displayed good steady playing but with a little variation in blowing. This improved later as the pipe came into tune—perhaps the problem was the pipes were just a touch too hard. She had good expression in her playing but this suffered a bit in some of the faster music. The selection of tunes she played was certainly fairly demanding—Battle of the Somme, Heights of Dargai, Ian Ruadh's Lament, Chasing Shadows, Abercairney Highlanders, Susan Macleod, Sheila MacMurchie's Dance, Man From Skye, Lark in the Morning and The Curlew.

At last someone just a bit older! But not by much—Phillip Cowan. He had a nice big pipe with good blowing. Again he had an ambitious set of tunes, including both the traditional and more modern branches of the bagpipe repertoire. As usual his execution was very good and there was good music throughout. Perhaps he could have had just a touch more consistency in the phrasing of some of the later tunes in his selection. The tunes included Balmoral Highlanders, Captain Colin Campbell, John Keith Lang, Walking the Surf, Hair of the Dog, Bulgarian Bandit, The Corgi, Itchy Fingers and Clumsy Lover.

Last piper for the night (finally a "mature" player!) was Mark McKenzie on his characteristic strong sounding instrument. He started out with some good rolling 6/8's. Then he played some music for his daughters Erin and Tara to dance to—a beginner's reel to Davy Knick-Knack, and a jig to The Irish Washerwoman. The to serious Scottish dance music! Piper's Bonnet, Ewe Wi' the Crookit Horn, Susan MacLeod and The Sheepwife. He finished off the light music with a selection of jigs and reels including Lark in the Morning, Donald MacLellan's Tuning Phrase, Humors of Tulla, Flowers of Red Hill and The Galtee Rangers. Then he played for us the ground of Black Donald's March to cap off what had been an excellent night of piping.

The raffle was drawn by Iain Bruce and won by Maurie DeHayr and then Doug Thoresen brought the night to a close with the usual announcements, with special mention of the Ipswich contest to be held the following Saturday. All then retired for supper..

HOW TO GET TO THE BALMORAL BOWLS CLUB

For those who like to work out their own directions the UBD Reference is Map 160, Reference Q12.

From the Gateway Arterial—turn north at the Lytton Road intersection (just south of the bridge), travel along Route 24 and the Route 23 (Wynnum Road) till you see the Colmslie RSL on your left. Turn in as if going to the RSL but go right through their carpark and continue along Jean Howie Drive for about 350 metres. Turn left into the Bowls Club car park.

From the City—go across the Story Bridge, left into Shafston Avenue, then into Lytton Road and Wynnum Road (Route 23). Go along Wynnum Road until you see the Colmslie RSL on your right. Turn in as if going to the RSL but go right through their carpark and continue along Jean Howie Drive for about 350 metres. Turn left into the Bowls Club car park.

From the west (old Cleveland Road)—Turn into Bennetts Road. Continue along Bennetts Road, across the railway line and a park will appear on your right. Jean Howie Drive goes through the park (the entrance to the drive is near the boundary of the Bulimba Cemetery). Go about 350 metres along the Drive and turn right into the Bowls Club car park.

General Business:

1. The President mentioned that there is a possibility that the Society may be able to be involved in some way in a visit by a piper from Scotland which the Celtic Celebration Committee is investigating.
2. Doug Thoresen proposed that we look at refurbishing the Jimmy Durham trophy and this was met with approval.
3. Mark McKenzie asked if the committee could look at reviving the Stuart Crystal contest and the President said that the committee would look at this., and also possibly the Silver Chanter that we conducted some years ago.

Close: 8.20pm

PRESIDENT'S REPORT 2002

Our Annual Meeting is somewhat like Christmas in that it seems to come around quicker each year.

On looking back over the past twelve months, we have enjoyed some memorable moments of good Piping in a variety of ways. Visits by Pipers from overseas and interstate have contributed to the music. The Piping styles of competition including Airs, Marches, Strathspeys, Reels, Jigs and Hornpipes have been played quite often while the classic music the Piobaireachd has almost become a regular feature. Kitchen Piping has also been demonstrated from time to time.

While no specific invitations have been extended to any one Band, we have enjoyed evenings when the Band members have attended in numbers. The support Drummers and Dancers has not gone unnoticed and they are always welcome to attend and we would like to include their talents to our evenings should they feel inclined to do so.

The attendance of members and visitors has been very encouraging and it is with such support we may continue and hopefully go ahead from strength to strength.

It would be remiss of me if I did not mention and thank the amicable team work of our Patron Maurie DeHayr, our Vice Presidents Bob Payne and Matthew Rigby and of course the major role of our secretary/treasurer and newsletter editor Alex McConnell and his supportive wife Desley. With the advent of such mutual support we can only succeed

To the Ladies and Gents who not only pay at the door, buy raffle tickets but quite often provide or supplement the supper we extend our grateful thanks.

To the folk who willingly assist in setting up and tidying up after our evening we also thank. as it not only contributes to our evenings but helps us to retain good relations with the Balmoral Bowls Club Management

So to you the members, the Pipers young and senior who often travel some distances to be here, we the Executive thank you for another great year and look forward to many enjoyable meetings in the future.

Doug Thoresen

NOTES:

1. The year has been a successful one with an increase in subscription income, together with the income from the levy. Income from meetings was steady.
2. A new photocopier was purchased and there was a marked decrease in other printing costs, along with decreases in other cost categories.
3. The cash position at the end of the year is still strong, despite the considerable outlay for the new copier
