Judge for the Contest will be Ross Campbell

Since our last newsletter there have been good solo contests at Carrara and Warwick, along with the Band contests at the same places. It's good to see a consistent number of both younger and more experienced players turning up to compete regularly.

The contest season in Scotland is also in full swing of course and two of our members are involved, with Tam McGirr and Mark McKenzie both in Scotland for part of the summer.

This month sees our major competition for junior players with the Jimmy Durham trophy (see above). Once again we thank Bill Durham (Jimmy's brother) for the kind donation of the medals and we thank Ross Campbell for agreeing to judge, just before he heads off overseas as well.

JUNE MEETING

After a couple of days of pretty continuous rain, our June Pipers Night only attracted about a dozen people. We had apologies from Tam McGirr (in Scotland) and Jack Grant (still waiting for some medical treatment). Also Reg and Glenys, Iain Bruce, the Galloways, Margaret Paterson and Innes Barker.

Maurie DeHayr was the first to play and his tunes included the 3/4 Lochanside, 2/4s Australian Ladies, Glengarry Gathering, Arthur Bignold of Lochrosque and Kantara to El Arish, the air Gin I Were a Baron's Heir and the Strathspey Innes Barker's Dance, played to celebrate Innes's 90th birthday which had been on the 19th of June.

Matt Supranowicz was next to play, starting with the 6/8s Lord MacPherson of Drumochter and Bruce

Gandy's Farewell to the Iron Horse and going on with Troy's Wedding, The Seagull, Donald MacLellan of Rothesay, Captain Campbell of Drum a Voisk, The Pipers Bonnet, Dora MacLeod, The Sheepwife, a collection of Irish jigs and reels and finally Tam Bain's Lum and The Old Wife of the Mill Dust.

Your scribe was next to have a tune, using Maurie's pipes. The tunes included The Dark Island, Rab's Wedding, Major Manson of Clachantrushal, Alick C Macgregor, Barbara's Jig and Banjo Breakdown.

Finally Maurie had some more tunes, but apart from Barren Rocks of Aden, the list seems to have gone missing. however to conclude he produced a most melodic rendition of Mackintosh's Lament (up to the Crunluath variation) on a pipe which now had an excellent sound (must have been due to your scribe's blowing!) music and there was plenty of time to chat over supper.

The raffle was drawn by Rob Grogan (and also won by him!), with the second prize going to Vic McKay. Despite the small numbers, we heard a good variety of

Piobaireachd Group

We had a "core team" of four at our July meeting. Unfortunately a number of the stalwarts were unable to be there and we had apologies from Ross Campbell, Yasu Hamilton and Peter Burrows.

Maurie DeHayr was the only one with pipes and after a warm up with some light music he played Tulloch Ard on what was now a very nice sounding pipe.

After playing, Maurie mentioned Mike Haggerty, a Pipe Major in the Camerons who visited Brisbane in the 1950s on his way to settling in Newcastle and gave a number of people in Brisbane some Piobaireachd tuition. This led into discussion of others who had played a part in the playing of Piobaireachd in Brisbane, including Alan Ferguson and Donald MacKinnon. The influence of the mining company sponsored pipe band in Mt Isa in that era was very pronounced, with many of the good pipers in South East Queensland either coming from overseas via that band or being filtered through it at one time or another

Following the discussion, Maurie gave us another tune - Rory MacLeod's Lament.

Discussion continued over morning tea and we finished a little early due to the small numbers.
